

Project TEACH Solutions Session Program

June 23rd

A collaborative educational initiative developed in partnership between Raincoast Conservation Foundation, Coexisting with Carnivores Alliance, the Wildlife Coexistence Lab at University of British Columbia, and Applied Conservation Science Lab at University of Victoria.

| Agenda | In person | Online |
|----------------------|--|---|
| 11:30 AM to 12:30 PM | Native Plant Walk with J.B. Williams* @ First People's House, UVic Campus *Pre-registration required | |
| 12:30 PM to 1 PM | Arrival at Bob Wright A104, University of Victoria, Victoria, BC | |
| 1 PM to 1:30 PM | Welcome and land acknowledgement with Emcee Andy MacKinnon <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Land acknowledgement: Nitya Chari Harris Welcome song: TBD | |
| 1:30 PM to 2PM | Feature speaker presentations Deborah Curran , Associate Professor, Executive Director, Environmental Law Centre, University of Victoria Lauren Ekert , PhD candidate, Applied Conservation Science Lab, Department of Geography, University of Victoria Chief Gordon Planes , Elected Chief, T'Sou-ke Nation, Secretary of Naut'sa mawt Tribal Council and director on the Lands Advisory Board. | |
| 2 PM to 2:05 PM | Break | |
| 2:10 PM to 2:30 PM | Panel discussion with feature speakers, moderated by Andy MacKinnon | |
| 2:30 PM to 3:20 PM | Attendee policy brainstorm | Attendee policy brainstorm break-out sessions Breakout sessions will be self-facilitated with online support provided by Emily Lambert, Gulf Islands Forest Project Intern. |
| 3:20 PM to 3:30 PM | Break | Screening of Project TEACH webinar highlights |
| 3:30 PM to 3:50 PM | Report back Highlights of online brainstorming sessions will be reported to the larger, in-person group by Shauna Doll, Gulf Islands Forest Project Coordinator with Raincoast Conservation Foundation | |
| 3:50 PM to 4:00 PM | Wrap-up and thanks | |