

Levels of Conflict

Interventions

SUPERFICIAL

Conflict over SRKW protection measures

Respectful engagement towards compromises and balancing competing interests in SRKW protection

Unresolved histories of conflict between stakeholders

Attending to historical conflict over resource management more generally

Sense of power-imbalance, limited agency in decision-making

Perceived threats to self-identity

Humanizing the 'other'

Conflict over the identity of British Columbia

Building trust-based relationships

Conflict fueled by different core management values

DEEP-ROOTED

